

JOHN D. REED, JR. Bio

I am John D. Reed, Jr., running for the position 1st Vice-President, Fulton County Retired Employee's Association, Inc.

I served several terms as President of the active Fulton County Employee's Association, Inc. As President, I met with employees, County officials, Department Heads, and other organizations to discuss and advocate for employee relations, benefits, issues, and concerns. During my term of office, my empowering messages were published in the FCEA monthly newsletters encouraging employees to keep believing because to a winner your core of beliefs will guide you.

I worked over 30 years in the Fire Department rising to the level of Fire Chief working with Fulton County and the City of Fairburn's Fire Chief. I worked in the Office of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners as Commissioner Emma Darnel's Special Assistant.

I am currently the President of Madison Woods HOA with 133 homes. I am a veteran. I served 4 years in the United States Marines. I attended Harvard University Kennedy School of Government Senior Executives in State and Local Government Program.

These are a few of the active FCEA, Inc. goals and activities carried out during my terms of office as President: 1) FCEA Scholarship Fund 2) FCEA Charity Fund 3) FCEA Employee's Week Celebrations 4) FCEA Membership Drives 5) FCEA Night at Six Flags over Georgia 6) FCEA December Luncheon for Members and Non-Members 7) FCEA Membership Cards Reactivated 8) Amended FCEA Bylaws, etc.
